

University of
New Haven

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN INVESTIGATIONS

CONCENTRATION IN FINANCIAL CRIMES

The MS in Investigations' Financial Crimes concentration examines white-collar crime and financial fraud. Equip yourself for careers in cybercrime investigations, fraud investigations, international crime investigations, organized-crime investigations, corporate security, loss prevention, anti-money laundering, law enforcement, risk management and more.

THE ACADEMIC OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM

- Theoretical and practical knowledge of financial crime investigation procedures
- Best practices for security and internal financial crime investigations
- White collar crime criminal procedure in respect to law enforcement

CORE COURSES (TOTAL OF 21 CREDITS)

CJST 6631	Investigations I
LSTD 6620	Regulation & Occupational Fraud
CJST 6651	Criminal Procedure
INVS 6601	White Collar Crime Analytics
INVS 6690	Contemporary Topics in Investigations
CJST 6630	Financial Crimes Investigation
CJST 6600	Computer Crimes: Legal Issues & Investigative Procedures

FINANCIAL CRIMES CONCENTRATION (9 CREDITS)

Three (3) electives (9 credits) approved by an advisor. Below is a sample of some of these electives offered:

INVS 6610	Transnational and Organized Crime Investigations
INVS 6611	Contemporary Topics in Cybercrime Investigations
INVS 6622	Bribery & Corruption Investigations
INVS 6627	Identity Fraud Investigations
INVS 6629	Evolving Trends of Financial and Cyber Crimes in an EMV World
INVS 6640	International Gambling, Fixing, and Corruption
INVS 6602	Contemporary Fraud Schemes
INVS 6603	Contemporary Topics in Money Laundering
INVS 6626	International Gambling, Fixing, and Corruption

Students are not limited to courses in the Investigations catalogue for electives, and may take courses in criminal justice, white collar crimes, national security, and digital forensics investigations or other programs. It is recommended that students discuss elective selections with their advisor to maximize the educational and career opportunities. Based on a student's work experience or previous course work, certain core requirements may be substituted by other courses.

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION

The Online MS in Investigations includes 10 required courses. Graduate online tuition is $990 per credit hour. Each class is 3 credit hours for a total of approximately $2,970 per class. The total cost for the degree is $29,700. Books are an estimated additional $100 per class.

DISCOUNT OPPORTUNITY

We offer 50% discount to police officers, fire fighters, and public safety officers. For more information on our discount opportunities, please visit: newhaven.edu/about/departments/bursars/tuition/discounts.php

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

GRADUATE ENROLLMENT

203.932.7440

1.800.342.5864 ext. 7440

lp.newhaven.edu/investigations

PROGRAM ADVISOR

Markka Juntti

203.883.1551

onlineadmin@newhaven.edu